

Montreal's Welsh Honor St. David

Montrealers of Welsh descent gathered in Christ Church Cathedral last night to pay homage to St. David, patron saint of Wales.

The service, organized by the Welsh Church of Montreal and St. David's Society, represented the annual spiritual reunion of the Canadian Cymry.

Very Rev. Kenneth Evans, dean and rector, who conducted the service, described the Welsh people as "never mighty, never healthy but one whose hope has always been in the Lord."

Chaplain of the St. David's Society, Mr. Evans expressed hope "that this age under a new monarch may be an age in which Wales will have a forceful influence upon the world."
