

MAR

Gone Note: "It is a grave and intolerable affront to every loyal Canadian of Welsh origin," is the way Prof. John Hughes, of the St. David's Society put it in a letter to Prime Minister Pearson regarding the startling fact that the Welsh Daffodil is not included among the fleur-de-lys, rose, shamrock and thistle on the newly-minted silver dollar. And yesterday was St. David's Day at that.

◆ ◆ ◆